

Friendship Baptist Church History

Friendship Baptist Church was founded in 1915 with the goal of fulfilling the Great Commission through evangelism, discipleship, fellowship, ministry, and worship.

Early Years and Growth

- Rev. G. W. Boyd (1915-1918): The founding pastor. The church began in the 1500 block of 12th Street, moving to a tent at 14th and Vine, and finally to 17th and Tracy. By Rev. Boyd's death in 1918, the church had established its Sunday School, Young People's Department, and several boards/choirs.
- Rev. S. C. Doyle (1918-1941): Elected the second Pastor. During his tenure, the church moved from 17th and Tracy to a tent at 14th and Lydia, and then to 1024 E. Truman Road. Membership and auxiliaries grew, and Rev. Doyle became known for his generosity to the sick and less fortunate.
- Rev. E. J. Johnson (1941-1944): Served a brief one-and-a-half-year term. Known as an outstanding preacher, he led the church to become debt-free.

Long-Term Development and Expansion

- Rev. Isaiah Hilkiah Henderson, Jr. (1944-1983): Served as the fourth Pastor for 39 years. Under his leadership, the church moved from Truman Road to 43rd and Montgall, where the mortgage was paid off in just two years. Growth continued with new programs (scouting, library, athletics), and the construction of Friendship Village Apartments. Rev. Henderson died in September 1983.
- Rev. Clifford E. McLain (1985-1992): Became the fifth Pastor. The church purchased 36 acres and built a new $4.1 million facility, moving into the current location at 3530 Chelsea Drive on October 7, 1989. The church experienced significant spiritual and numerical growth.
- Dr. Manuel L. Dillingham (1993-2001): Elected the sixth Pastor. The church completed the kitchen and gymnasium under his leadership.

Current Era

- Rev. James Allen Terrance Jr. (2003-Present): Elected the seventh Pastor in January 2003. Key milestones under his leadership include burning the mortgage in May 2004, various facility renovations and updates, and the enhancement of community ministries, including the Hope Ministry and increased financial support for scholarships and youth employment.

Friendship Baptist Church celebrates over 108 years of service and continues to grow spiritually, numerically, and financially as it works to fulfill the Great Commission.
