

Writer's Guidelines

As writers for our web blog posts, we want to encourage and inspire our readers to take the truths of God's word and make those truths alive and active in their life. The following guidelines will help us establish consistency as we present to our readers.

Tone: Try writing your piece like you're talking to a valued friend, and the reader will hear your message as coming from someone who genuinely cares about them. Informal. Optimistic. Hopeful. Inspiring. Encouraging. With love.

Subject: Your subject matter is what God lays on your heart to write about, to help others grow and maintain a strong walk in the faith. Please always have scripture reference(s) to substantiate what you write. Lessons learned, insight gleaned from a particular scripture verse or passage, and spiritual discipline are all good topics to inspire others and encourage spiritual growth.

Length: 400 words max, 200-300 words is most preferred.

Submit: Please send your submission to neweradistpublications@gmail.com

Thank you for choosing to share your love of God, through writing to encourage and inspire His people. "And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him." Colossians 3:17 ESV

God bless!
